

LIST OF SUBSTANTIAL TRANSFORMATION RULINGS RELATED TO STEEL IMPORTS

In Proclamation 7529 of March 5, 2002, the President announced temporary safeguards on imports of steel products as a result of the Section 201 investigation of steel imports. Imports of certain steel that are the product of Canada, Israel, Jordan, or Mexico are excluded from the safeguard measures established by the proclamation. With certain exceptions, imports of certain steel that are the product of WTO member developing countries, are likewise excluded from the safeguard measures.

The following rulings issued by Customs Headquarters, are available on the Customs web site, and may be consulted in ascertaining the country of origin of steel products for purposes of determining whether the additional duties imposed pursuant to Presidential Proclamation 7529, are applicable to your transaction.

In addition, should you wish to obtain a binding ruling with respect to this issue, you may do so in accordance with part 177, Customs Regulations, (19 CFR part 177) by sending a complete description of your transaction to:
